

On Your Way to the Top?

DAU Can Help You Get There.

If you're in the defense acquisition workforce, you need to know about the Defense Acquisition University. Our education and training programs are designed to meet the career-long training needs of all DoD and defense industry personnel.

Comprehensive—Learn what you need to know

DAU provides a full range of basic, intermediate, and advanced curriculum training, as well as assignment-specific and continuous learning courses. Whether you're new to the AT&L workforce or a seasoned member, you can profit from DAU training.

Convenient—Learn where and when it suits you

DAU's programs are offered at five regional campus and their additional training sites. We also have certification courses taught entirely or in part through distance learning, so you can take courses from your home or office. Check out the over 100 self-paced modules on our Continuous Learning Center Web site at <http://clc.dau.mil>.

You'll find the DAU 2006 Catalog at www.dau.mil. Once you've chosen your courses, it's quick and easy to register online. Or contact DAU Student Services toll free at 888-284-4906 or student.services@dau.mil, and we'll help you structure an educational program to meet your needs.

DAU also offers fee-for-service consulting and research programs.
